Over half of the Utah Museum of Fine Arts' operating budget comes from community members like you. Your financial support helps bolster our daily work and secures the future of the Museum for our entire community. A gift today will ensure that our collections continue to be cared for, that our future exhibitions are prepared and supported, and that our educational programs can be managed now and planned for the future.

Whether it is through a donation or a membership gift, we hope you will consider supporting the UMFA today.

Buy Tickets

We're thrilled that you're planning a visit to the UMFA! Here's what you need to know:

Online ticket reservations are required for entry to the UMFA's galleries. While face masks are not required, the UMFA is mask friendly and masks are recommended.

UMFA will also continue to limit building capacity for everyone's safety, and we ask visitors to continue practicing social distancing in the galleries and to reschedule.

Online ticket reservations are required for entry to the UMFA's galleries, and museum capacity is limited for everyone's safety. Purchase your tickets here. Questions?

We join the U in urging everyone to be patient and kind to each other during these times. The ultimate kindness is to protect each other by following COVID protocols.

Here's the list of safety precautions the UMFA is taking and asking visitors to take.

Free Days

Admission is free the first Wednesday and third Saturday of the month, thanks to support from Salt Lake County Zoo, Arts and Parks (ZAP) and the Utah Division of Tourism.

Museums for All

The UMFA supports Museums for All and free admission for those in our community who receive food assistance. Present a Utah Horizon, EBT (Electronic Benefit Transfer) card or WIC card to receive free admission.

Blue Star Museums

The UMFA is a Blue Star Museum, offering free admission to active-duty military personnel and their families (up to 6 visitors) with military ID.

How to Get Here

The Museum is located in the Marcia and John Price Museum Building at 410 Campus Center Drive on the University of Utah campus, between Rice-Eccles Stadium and the Jon M. Huntsman Center.

TRAX

The UMFA is easily accessed by TRAX. We are located just a five-minute walk northwest of the University South Campus stop on the University (Red) line. Click here to plan your trip.

Bus

The UMFA is easily accessed by the following UTA bus routes: 17, 213, 223, 228, 313, 354, 455, and 473. Click here to plan your trip.

Driving

From the south: Travel north on I-15 and take the 600 South exit. Turn north (left) on State Street and east (right) on 400 South. Head east on 400 South (which becomes 500 South).

From the north: Travel south on I-15 and take the 400 South exit. Head east on 400 South (which becomes 500 South) to the light at Campus Center Drive (at 1580 S).

From the east or the west: Travel on I-80 to Foothill Drive. Take Foothill Drive north to Mario Capecchi Drive. Turn right on Mario Capecchi Drive and left onto South Campus Center Drive.

Parking

Free and pay parking is available for weekday visits. Campus parking is free on weekends, except in reserved stalls.

Free Visitor Stalls

Turn left on 1725 East, then right into the lot east of the Museum and park in any stall labeled UMFA Visitor Parking. Register your license plate number at the welcome desk.

Pay Lot

Turn left on 1725 East, then continue as the road curves to the east (the Business Loop) and look for the visitor pay lot on your right—be sure to prepay at the kiosk.

Free Parking on Wednesday Nights

The UMFA often hosts programs on Wednesday nights, when the Museum is open until 9 pm. On those nights, museum parking is free after 6 pm in the lot east of the Museum.
